

“PASSION FOR COMMUNITY
ENGAGEMENT & LOCAL SERVICES”

ABBHEY BROWN

Client Relationship Manager

LINKEDIN: ABBHEY BROWN

Bachelor of Arts (Recreation)

With a working career of over 15 years in the not for profit sector Abbey worked in many psychosocial settings working for MIND, The Mental Illness Fellowship and Norwood in various case management, individual outreach support and Respite Coordinator roles.

Abbey is passionate about community engagement and enhancing local services that enable and provide opportunities for people to self-skill to make significant changes to their life path.

A recent role as the Program Co-ordinator of Reconnect for Swinburne University of Technology in the Mitchell Shire, the role entailed mentoring and client support of those with a desire to train and educate for meaningful employment, often breaking cycles of long term unemployment.

Abbey's experience is not only in the realm of individual support and management roles and extends herself into administrative support for psychologists and Crisis Training Organisations in the area of Virtual Support.

Living in the Macedon Ranges when not working you will find Abbey camping on local waterways or in the garden.
